COMMUNITY FOUNDATION of Dunn County

For Good. Forever.

Children & Youth

- 1 Three new academic scholarship funds will provide an additional $5,000 for the class of 2017 to continue their education.
- 2 When a study found that 34% of our 10th grade girls think that they are "no good" and felt that they did not have much to be proud of, Arbor Place and our teachers designed a mental health intervention program to spark immediate change.

Because he wanted every child to succeed, a middle school art teacher left most of his estate to Menomonie High.

- 4 Area youth with musical promise and financial need have the opportunity to attend a summer music camps.

Capacity Building

- 5 Over 60 charitable organizations joined us at our first ever Dunn County Nonprofit Summit to build a stronger community, together.
- 6 Local board members will be able to take advantage of professional training thanks to the Porter Fund

Hunger Relief

- 7 The collaborative faith project Tuesday's Table expanded their hunger initiatives beyond a weekly meal to meet rising needs.
- 8 Stepping Stones and Meals on Wheels are fighting senior hunger with supplemental food boxes.

Rotary's Kids Against Hunger packaged so much food they were able to support Haitian Hurricane relief efforts as well as our local food pantries.

Non Profit Summit

Forming Futures

- 10 Funding a rental assistance program means one Dunn County family is welcoming in the New Year in safe, permanent housing.
- 11 More people will learn how to read thanks to Literacy Chippewa Valley and our grant to eliminate barriers to adult literacy.
- 12 Mothers who are victims of domestic violence don't have to choose between food, gas, or diapers thanks to the Women's Giving Circle and Bridge to Hope Diaper Bank.
- 13 The Community For Veterans is doubling the occupancy of their transitional living home with a remodeling grant.
