

StoutReach Partners

Description:

StoutReach is a program coordinated by the Involvement Center and StoutReach specialists at UW-Stout. It is designed to provide students with opportunities for meaningful service and learning activities at a local, state, national, and international level. It goes above and beyond to help students grow through experiences outside the classroom in their community to be better leaders, stronger citizens, and caring community members. It's the ideal program to get involved with if you are interested in community service and outreach!

Mission:

To provide significant learning experiences for students through meaningful service activities that benefit the community.

Vision:

To connect UW-Stout students and community members together for a mutual experience of service and volunteerism.

How Do I Start to Connect with Students?

Simply put: OrgSync. This online system is the bridge between you as service partners and student volunteers. You will need to start by filling out the Service Partner Registration form, you will then be sent an email to set up your portal! <https://orgsync.com/46444/forms/234485>

You can then connect with students by posting events, opportunities, and connecting with other best betting tips today matches student organizations.

If you'd like to submit for an opportunity and you do not have a portal, we also take outside submissions for students to get involved: <https://orgsync.com/46444/forms/233397>
